PRESENTATION
Work on Behalf of the Homeless/At-Risk Population in the Mountains	Kathy Schwab + Jessica Ehret	(Kathy Schwab joined us from Mexico! ) Homeless Support Kathy shared her experience with the Mountain Help ministry of First Baptist Church, Crestline, discussing the services provided by Mountain Help. Kathy shared her experiences working with U-turn for Christ, a ministry that provides assistance to needy families and individuals, including homeless people, and the challenges she faced in getting people to show up for appointments. Gary provided Kathy with contact details and information about the Mountain Homeless Coalition's list of area food banks. Kathy expressed concern for a person inquiring about electric heating costs and shared that an average of five people have been visiting the coalition's services. Wendell discussed Mountain Homeless Coalition’s resource guide, which Kathy confirmed receiving from Becky who

		offered to drop more resources at the Baptist church for Kathy to copy and distribute. Kathy also showed interest in Operation Provider esp. regarding their utility assistance program. Rim Family Services Wendell introduced Jessica from Rim Family Services, an organization that promotes active and healthy lifestyles for the older adult community. Jessica shared her role in providing resources, referrals, and services for various programs, including mental health, after-school programs, home safety inspections, and social events. She requested a copy of the Food Bank resource list to assist in her work, which Gary forwarded to her. Kathy from Mountain Help expressed interest in learning more about Rim Family Services and offered to add them to their resource list. Jessica agreed to provide more information, and Kathy planned to visit Operation Provider to share information about both organizations. Jessica, Kathy, Wendell, and Becky discussed local organizations that provide assistance to those in need. Kathy shared about her church's donations to a local organization, and Wendell suggested she collaborate with the Senior Thrift Center for additional resources. Jessica offered her assistance to seniors in need, with information about the Senior Center in Crestline. The group also learned about Hope the Mission's new role in running the Victorville homeless center and their plans for a youth advocacy summit on September 7th, aimed at providing resources and support to youth experiencing homelessness or unstable housing. Becky requested Tyrese's contact information for a Spanish-speaking family in the Big Bear area who could benefit from these resources.

Member Roundtable &amp; Public Comment	Wendell	OTHER DISCUSSION/SHARING: Wendell Wilson invited input from attendees. Wendell invited attendees to provide information from other nonprofits, churches, and providers in the mountains to foster better relationships and understanding among them. Tyrese shared contact details for various programs and individuals, including Bear Valley and Rim of the World, which were requested by Becky and Paul. Wendell highlighted Shonda's expertise on the McKinney-Vento program. The team also discussed the recent governance charter review and approval at the Interagency Council on Homelessness (ICH) meeting, where Paul was appointed as the Mountain Representative and joined the Grant Review Committee. Wendell and Paul presented on the California Proposition 1, a funding initiative for mental health and addiction, and its potential regional impact. The conversation ended with an open invitation for other churches or nonprofits to join their monthly Zoom meetings for improved collaboration. Next steps <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jessica to bring updated information about Rim Family Services programs to Kathy at Mountain Help.</li> <li>• Kathy to visit Operation Provider to share information about Mountain Help services.</li> <li>• Tyrese to ensure resources for trans youth are available at the upcoming Youth Advocacy Summit.</li> <li>• Tyrese to send updated contact list for school district liaisons to meeting attendees.</li> <li>• Paul to provide update on Grant Review Committee at next month's meeting.</li> <li>• All attendees to provide names and contact information of other churches or nonprofits that might benefit from joining future meetings.</li> <li>• Jessica to add Mountain Help to Rim Family Services' resource list.</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Kathy to follow up with the woman and her daughter facing potential eviction and heating issues.</li> </ul> The conversation ended with an open invitation for other churches or nonprofits to join their monthly Zoom meetings for improved collaboration.

COMMUNITY INPUT — 2024 —

Attention San Bernardino County Residents!

How would you invest $57 million in your community over the next five years? *Share your insights!

We need your help determining how best to spend federal funds to invest in San Bernardino County communities. Together, we can prioritize key areas such as affordable housing, sustainability, homeless shelters, infrastructure and job opportunities. Every five years, the County creates the "Consolidated Plan" document to identify community needs and priorities.

APORTACIONES COMUNITARIAS — 2024 —

¡Atención residentes del condado de San Bernardino!

¿Cómo invertiría $57 millones en su comunidad en los próximos cinco años?
¡Comparta sus perspectivas!

Necesitamos su ayuda para determinar la mejor manera de invertir los fondos federales en las comunidades de San Bernardino. Juntos, podemos priorizar las áreas clave como la vivienda asequible, la sostenibilidad, los refugios para personas sin hogar, la infraestructura y las oportunidades laborales. Cada cinco años, el condado redacta el documento "Plan Consolidado" para identificar las necesidades y prioridades de la comunidad.
