- In November 2004, California voters passed Mental Health Services Act (MHSA) Proposition 63, which imposes a 1% tax on adjusted annual income over $1,000,000

ASKING ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TO EXPLAIN CONFLICTS OF INTEREST....

Actual vs. Perceived Conflict of Interest

Actual Conflict of Interest

An actual conflict of interest occurs when a person has a direct and real conflict between their official duties and their personal interests. This means that their personal interest does or will improperly influence their decisions or actions in a professional role.

Example:

A city council member votes to award a contract to a company they secretly co-own. Their personal financial interest is directly involved in the decision.

Perceived (or Apparent) Conflict of Interest

A perceived conflict of interest arises when a situation appears to an outside observer to involve a conflict, even if no improper influence or wrongdoing actually exists. The key here is public perception, not the reality of the conflict.

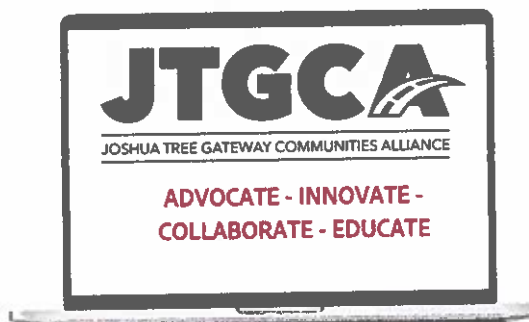

Example:

That same council member votes to award a contract to a company where their sibling works. Even if the council member has no financial interest and acted ethically, the public might perceive bias due to the family connection.

Why the Distinction Matters...

- Actual conflicts can lead to legal or ethical violations and consequences.
- Perceived conflicts can damage public trust, even if no rules were technically broken.

Both types should be addressed seriously-actual conflicts must be avoided, and perceived conflicts should be disclosed and managed transparently to maintain integrity and credibility.

Inland Housing Solutions

Mission Statement

We exists to break the cycle of individual and family homelessness in the Inland Empire, by providing housing, case management, and other supportive services to individuals and families who have no place to live.

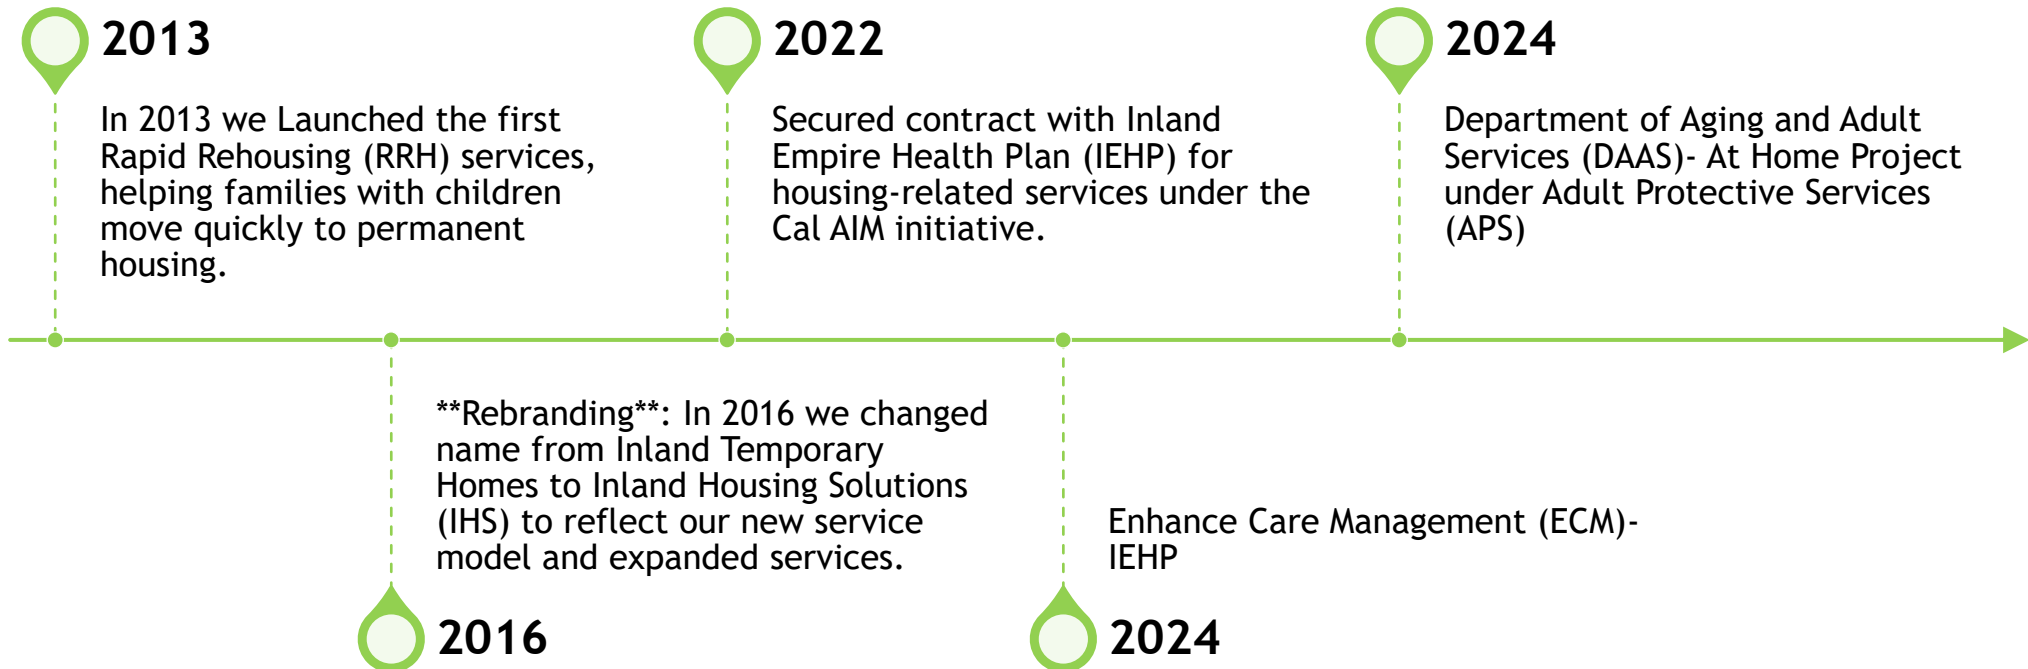

History

In 1988 Inland Temporary Homes (ITH) was incorporated in California.

Early Operations: We began in a restored farmhouse in Loma Linda, providing initial steps for homeless families toward self-sufficiency. In 1991 we officially opened as a 30-day homeless shelter with minimal services.

Growth and Expansion: In 1998 we expanded shelter stay to 90 days, offering a full range of supportive services. Then in 2007 we added 16 housing units through the Infinite Horizons Transitional Housing program, supporting families toward stability.

History

Overview of our Experience

Past: Over 30 years of experience working with families and individuals experiencing homelessness in various settings

We have transitioned all our programs to provide Permanent Housing solutions like Rapid Rehousing (RRH)

We seek resources and opportunities to expand our services in the Whole Person Care realm

We are seeking opportunities in Housing Development or purchasing our own properties to manage and provide full wrap around-services
