Inland Southern California United Way (ISCUW) 211+	Aziza Manuel, Inland Southern California United Way (ISCUW) 211+	The Chair opened item # 2 and recognized Aziza Manuel. Aziza Manuel provided the following updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A breakdown of demographic of callers by region</li> <li>• A count of the services requested during calls</li> <li>• A count of the referrals sent by agency</li> </ul> The Chair opened the items for comments by the public: No Public comments were made. Discussion and Questions from the Board: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• David Rabindranath asked “Do you have the average wait time until callers talk to someone?”</li> <li>• Aziza Manuel stated “Wait time has decreased drastically since the implementation of the new system and is projected to continual decline. It was previously two minutes to a minute and ten seconds. The wait time goal is 45 seconds. For providers worried about contacting 211 for homeless services there is a CES direct line. “</li> <li>• David Rabindranath asked “Is 211 still 24hrs?”</li> <li>• Aziza Manuel stated “211 contact center is still 24hrs. If the phone call is received after hours for the CES team, the phone call will be returned within 48 hours. Is there anything missing from the presentation? “</li> <li>• Kameron Grosvenor stated “It would be useful to have the household size of the callers. We personally see larger families.”</li> <li>• Aziza Manuel informed “Family household size is something we can capture with our CES data.”</li> <li>• David Rabindranath stated “We would also like to know if the clients have pets. This information will allow us to see what program they are eligible for, especially when considering shelters.”</li> <li>• Aziza Manuel stated “I think this would be show that way we can understand why a certain population has higher numbers. We may be able to add this to a personal assessment.”</li> </ul> The Chair opened the items for comments by the public: No Public comments were made. Being no other discussion, The Chair closed item # 2

The Inland SoCal 211+ Contact Center empowers residents in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties with resources to thrive. Established in 2005 and authorized by the California Public Utilities Commission, the 211 Contact Center is the easy 3-digit call line 2-1-1 for multi-lingual, culturally relevant information, referrals, and services available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including holidays and weekends. Operated by local expert, compassionate Community Resource Advisors, the 211 Contact Center is Accredited by Inform USA and the American Association of Suicidology.

Pathways Home is Inland SoCal 211+'s program for Coordinated Entry. Coordinated Entry is a system-wide process designed to efficiently and equitably connect people experiencing or at risk of homelessness to housing and other services. It involves assessing needs, prioritizing individuals, and making referrals to appropriate resources within a community. Essentially, it acts as the "front door" to the homelessness response system, streamlining the process of accessing help.
