Overall Takeaways

The 2026 PITC reveals continued progress in reducing unsheltered homelessness and expansion of shelter capacity, resulting in a modest overall decline in homelessness. However, persistent challenges remain:

- High rates of chronic homelessness, behavioral health needs, and lack of income.
- Concentration of homelessness in key urban centers, especially San Bernardino, Fontana, Victorville, and Ontario.
- Significant inflow of individuals newly experiencing homelessness, signaling rising instability among vulnerable households.

The report underscores the need for targeted interventions, including increasing housing placements, expanding behavioral health services, strengthening reentry pathways, and focusing on preventative strategies for first-time homelessness.

Vision Statement

All individuals and families across San Bernardino County, regardless of their economic conditions, will have access to safe, secure, stable, affordable, permanent housing and needed supportive services.

Mission Statement

To collaborate across all regions and sectors in the county, using a person-centered approach, to connect individuals and families to a diverse range of supportive services and long-term sustainable housing that fits their unique needs.

Guiding Principles

Housing is a Human Right

Every individual deserves to be treated with respect, dignity and empathy, regardless of their circumstances. Solutions need to be designed around the person, not program rules. Prioritizing the physical and emotional well-being of every person in the county can empower people to build independence and self-sufficiency.

Housing is a Social Determinant of Health

Housing is needed to ensure health, safety, and stability for all individuals and families in the region. However, stability depends on income and opportunity, not just housing placement.

Strong Decision-Making is guided by Data and Evidence

Data-driven solutions rely on evidence, not assumptions. Continuous learning and evaluation should be core to the approach to reduce and end homelessness.

Creative and Innovative Solutions will Benefit the Entire Community

Housing and service providers need to embrace creative, evidence-based approaches that will prevent and end homelessness. They can rely on flexibility and creativity in addressing barriers to housing, employment, and stability. The work should inspire belief and hope in the possibility of change.

It is Essential to Value the Voices of People with Lived Experience

People who have lived experience of homelessness have unique voices and roles in the design of solutions to prevent and end homelessness. The community needs to create a variety of opportunities to understand their point of view and respond to their concerns.

There is Shared Ownership and Responsibility for the Homelessness Crisis

No one can sit by without acting. As a region, we must partner collaboratively – with County departments, community-based organizations, Cities, businesses, neighbors, and individuals – to be responsible and accountable together for responding to homelessness. We can no longer work in siloes and should avoid duplication of effort.

The Disparities that Exist Across the Homeless System of Care Can't Be Ignored

Racial, gender, sexual orientation, and other inequities persist and need to be addressed so that all county residents can equitably access fair housing, resources, and opportunities. Systems must identify and serve everyone in need, even when they are not visible in traditional data sources.

Goals and Strategies

Over the next five years, the CoC will unite around bold, targeted strategies to dramatically reduce homelessness in the county, guided by key goals to drive measurable change and transform lives:

GOAL 1
Permanent and Affordable Housing

Increase permanent and affordable housing capacity and provide the resources needed to ensure people can maintain stable housing.

GOAL 2
Coordination

Improve information, coordination, and collaboration between County Departments, Cities, the CoC, and RSCs.

GOAL 3
Shelter and Services

Improve and expand shelter, interim housing, and low-barrier services.

GOAL 4
Prevention and Diversion

Develop and invest in a CoC-wide prevention and diversion program, including an improved education and resource effort, to lower barriers to housing and services for people at risk of or experiencing homelessness.

GOAL 5
Data and Performance

Strengthen the homeless response system so that it is data-driven, fair, and results-oriented

of the CoC's total PITC

The West Valley region has extremely limited interim and permanent housing available for people experiencing homelessness with only 2% of the total beds in the CoC in 2025, most of which were dedicated to specialized populations.

Breakdown of beds in the West Valley Region (2025 HIC)

GOAL 1 : Permanent and Affordable Housing

Strategy 1.2: Expand access to affordable housing in underserved regions.

Expand access to affordable housing for aging adults and disabled by piloting shared housing and co-op living models, (e.g., supporting home sharing for homeowners, pairing tenants to share rentals, and developing cooperative living spaces), including projects tailored for aging adults developed through the West Valley Regional CCAHSAA Collaboratory initiative like the West Valley Initiative with the California Healthcare Foundation.

GOAL 2 : Coordination

Strategy 2.1: Formalize communication and roles between the County, CoC and RSCs to strengthen internal collaboration.

Establish a formal partnership between the County, West Valley cities, the CoC-RSC and other community stakeholders to provide strategic planning, coordinated service delivery and operational oversight for the new West End Regional Navigation Center.

GOAL 2 : Coordination

Strategy 2.1: Formalize communication and roles between the County, CoC and RSCs to strengthen internal collaboration.

Model information sharing and peer learning for other RSCs and the CoC by highlighting innovative housing and funding models utilized by West Valley, such as the CCAHSSA Collaboratory initiative, and its cities in cross-RSC and CoC presentations and workshops.

GOAL 2 : Coordination

Strategy 2.3: Strengthen cross-sector partnerships for resource optimization.

Support the development of regional cross-sector partnerships between public and private organizations in the homelessness, housing, healthcare and social service sectors to facilitate collective impact outcomes focused on housing stability and whole person care for high-risk populations in the region, such as the CCAHSAA Collaboratory initiative.

GOAL 3 : Shelter and Services

Strategy 3.1: Develop a CoC-wide plan for shelter and interim housing.

Develop a regional strategy that creates bridge housing for people exiting hospitals, crisis stabilization units, treatment and recovery programs and other institutions by aligning cross-system partners, braiding capital and operating funds, formalizing discharge-to-housing protocols and tracking outcomes.

GOAL 4 : Prevention and Diversion

Strategy 4.3: Proactively identify and stabilize households at high risk of homelessness.

Establish a regional prevention and diversion strategy for the West Valley that includes developing a coordinated regional flexible spending pool and a multi-agency collaborative partnership that focuses on maintaining housing for currently housed, high-risk households, preventing their inflow into the system.

GOAL 5 : Data and Performance

Strategy 5.2: Increase provider accountability and performance management.

Establish a regional model for data-driven housing and homelessness response, using outcomes and lessons learned to guide countywide strategy and replication.

GOAL 5 : Data and Performance

Strategy 5.3: Ensure lived experience is integrated at all levels of decision-making.

Develop and implement a process to integrate feedback and input from people with lived experience into all levels of housing and homelessness policy, planning and program design in the West Valley.

West Valley RSC Regional Implementation Plan

The West Valley region includes some of the most suburban and economically developed parts of the county, including cities like Ontario, Rancho Cucamonga, and Upland. It benefits from its proximity to Los Angeles, with access to a skilled workforce, a diversified economy, and a strong logistics, retail, and manufacturing presence. The area has seen rapid growth in recent years, which has brought infrastructure and housing development challenges, along with increasing diversity and the need for more diverse and culturally competent providers.

According to the U.S. Census Bureau, West Valley residents represent 32% of the county's total population. The region has the highest median rent at $2,159 and median income is $99,887. Approximately 28.3% of the region's population is severely cost burdened (spending more than 50% of income on housing) despite only 9.7% of the population living below the poverty line. The West Valley has the lowest vacancy rate of all San Bernardino county regions, at 3.6%.

The West Valley Region's Homeless Service System

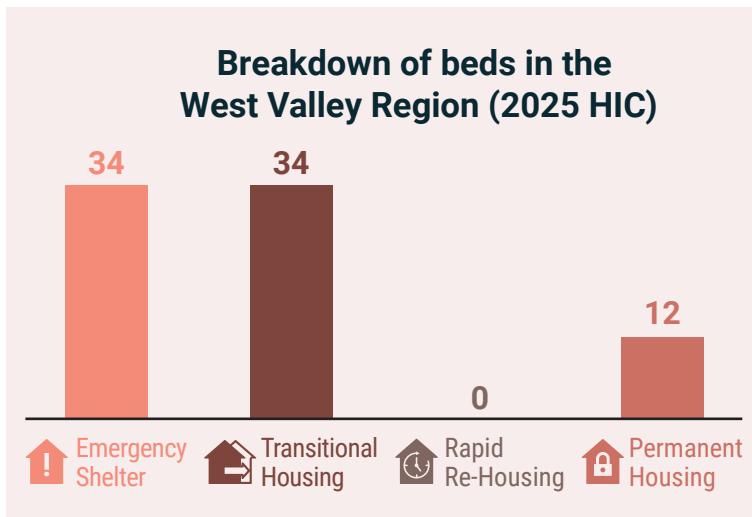

The West Valley region has extremely limited interim and permanent housing available for people experiencing homelessness with only 2% of the total beds in the CoC in 2025, most of which were dedicated to specialized populations.

The homeless service system in the West Valley is characterized by deep collaborations and partnerships between providers, a strong commitment from both County and City governments, strong partnerships with health care providers, and an emphasis on developing innovative service models. Challenges for the West Valley RSC include a severe shortage of affordable housing, the additional need for housing for people with behavioral health needs, and uneven local provider participation in the CoC's Coordinated Entry System (CES) and the Homeless Management Information System (HMIS).

Additionally, there is a large population of individuals and families living in the region that are at-imminent risk of homelessness. As identified above, more than one in four renter households in the region are severely cost burdened, living one missed paycheck or one unanticipated financial crisis away from losing their stable housing. There is also a large, hidden population living in their cars, paying to live in motels and living doubled-up with relatives or friends. Both of these situations highlight a critical need for one-time rent assistance payments or ongoing rental subsidies, coupled with conflict mediation, to stabilize these households and prevent family crises that can lead to homelessness. RSC members noted the absence of a proactive role by local governments in incentivizing deeply affordable housing development in the community, including density bonuses and fast-track permitting. RSC members also highlighted the urgent need to create regional drop-in centers for youth, and partner with schools and local community colleges to staff and promote access to housing and services.
